A fine piece about Ike Pearson, III, and many other items, including a sermon, HAD to be left out this week because, on Thursday, we had a rush of ads and news that could not wait.

His many friends, white and colored, are concerned over the condition of Lowe Brown who is now confined to his home. He is the faithful carrier on Carrier Route 1 in Grenada, and was the first man ever to make house-try of mail in this city.

... says the new granddaughter is the prettiest baby ever born, AND she looks exactly like me. How lovely reconcile such statements?

... printing Don's ad, we forgot to put his slogan, "Here Since 1867" on it.

That's a pretty bunch of graduate nurses on the society page. If I were a young man I believe I would try to get one of them as a lifetime nurse.

I heard of Warrant Officers in the last war, but never saw one.

We have some mighty nice arrangements for stationery for the Air Corps boys. Among other emblems, we have that of the Troop Carrier Command.

Julieheim is figuring on going down to see Max before soon. Max, it seems, isn't here for long.

You cannot hold them back. James Moore, Dave Williams, Charlie Worsham and Ed McCormick have flung their derbies in.

Remember, those vast runways and that apron will be at the AAB long after the flying ends, as we used to call them, have eaten Camp McCain.

Only $1072.50 of the $12,300.00 goal for the Red Cross in this county has been collected. Hurry in with your donations.

They have started fixing up the bus station so that the increasing crowds can be more expeditiously handled.

My luck changed last year when I was for the two winners, Abernethy and Eastland. I think my luck will hold this year, so get on the band wagon with me and Conner.

Be sure to tell us when your soldier son or husband is home on a visit. Unless you look close all soldiers look more or less alike.

From the dances that are going on, I guess our army is going to dance to victory.

I never heard of a dance in the last war except in places where beer cost a dollar a bottle.

Times have changed, and I am glad of it.

Little John Keeton adds his voice to the chorus, "Ain't they sweet".

I wonder who is going to run for alderman from west ward to replace Henry Ray. Count Roy Doak and me and John Bradley out.

This is not official, but I have a hunch the rookies are going to be turned loose Saturday afternoon and Sunday.

The old heads might as well get all the offices they can NOW, for when the war is over the men now in service will take over from governor to constable.

Brother A. W. Suggs of Big Creek has cast his lot with us again.

This is a LAST appeal: please look at the expiration date on your paper, and, if you are delinquent, please come or send in the money.

Our spoiled child, who commutes between here and Vicksburg, was here again last week-end.

The Mayorhood of Osberry was in town this week and renewed her subscription.

This, happily, is a non-controversial issue. Nobody should get mad at anything herein.

Gene Fly is going to get in a lot of money soon.

The Grenada County Weekly

VOLUME SIX GRENADA, GRENADA COUNTY, MISS. THURSDAY, MARCH 11, 1943 NUMBER FORTY-THREE

Leon Geeslin Has Been Promoted Three Times

His many friends in Grenada will be happy to know of the successful career of Leon Geeslin with the Douglas Aircraft Corporation, having received three promotions in just about 13 months.

He received his preliminary training at M. I. T. in Memphis, then spent a short time with Vultee in Nashville, afterwards going to the Douglas plant in Long Beach, California. In December, 1942, he was transferred to the plant in Oklahoma City, and has received 3 promotions. He is now Senior Lead Man in charge of 118 workmen. Ordinarily it requires from 5 to 6 years, instead of 13 or 14 months to reach this position.

Congratulations, Leon.

Purdie Old Home Burned Last Week

The century-old Purdie home in West Ford burned to the ground last Friday. This home was one of those substantial log and weatherboard homes built even before Grenada County was formed, of the knot-free timbers which were available at that time. Mr. James Purdie, husband of Mrs. Mattie Purdie who lives there now with her son James Purdie and family, was born there and lived his entire life, almost eighty years, in that home.

Practically nothing was saved. The precious relics of several generations were quickly consumed as the fire made quick work of the seasoned timbers.

James Moore, Of Oakland, Seeks State Senatorship

James Moore, of Oakland, announces his candidacy for the State Senate (28th District) Grenada and Yalobusha Counties.

After conferences with friends and much thought on the matter Mr. Moore has decided to enter the race for the State Senate. Admitting a long cherished desire to serve as a member of the State Legislature James Moore of Oakland invites your investigation and solicits your support. In return for which he promises studios, courteous, businesslike service—ever bearing in mind the best interests of the District.

Bearing the full name (with pride) of his grandfather, the late Senator James Moore—Mr. Moore was born in Oakland, December 31st, 1891—has lived most of his life in the county. Received his education at Castle Heights School, Lebanon, Tenn., and at the University of Mississippi. Is the present Mayor of Oakland (having served two terms) Being a veteran of World War I is a member of the American Legion, having served two years as Commander of Coffeeville Post 115, and two years as District Commander of the State Department of the American Legion. He has been a member of the Yalobusha County Selective Service Board since its inception in 1940, and is today tendering his resignation in order to enter politics. He is member of the Methodist Church, and various fraternal organizations.

In retiring from the Draft Board Mr. Moore wishes to thank the fathers and mothers for their patience and tolerance toward his efforts to administer fairness and justice as a member of this body.

He states with much satisfaction and pleasure that not one instance of ill personal feeling has been brought to his notice, and further states that he is thankful for and proud to live among such a group of loyal and true AMERICANS.

Ain't they sweet.

Mrs. Henrietta Sharp Roane Died Here Last Saturday

The city was saddened last Saturday, March 6, 1943, to hear that Death had ended the long and useful career of Mrs. Henrietta Sharp Roane, widow of the late J. A. Roane—a career, the last of which was saddened by continued illness.

She was one of the daughters of the late Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Sharp, of Wall Hill, Marshall County, and Grenada, and was born in Marshall County on September 14, 1860.

On February 11, 1890, she and Mr. J. A. ("Drew") Roane were married. She was a conscientious member of the Methodist Church for practically a lifetime. She was a graduate of Grenada College. She has lived in Grenada about 45 years. She was very active in church work and was always interested in civic betterment, nor did her interest cease when failing health forced a retirement from active participation in these affairs. One honor that she treasured very much was a Life Membership in the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, conferred only upon those who have outstanding service in the organization.

The many, many beautiful floral tributes that were sent to the home and afterwards covered the grave attested to the fact that she and her people occupied a very warm spot in the hearts of Grenada people.

Burial was had on Sunday afternoon and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. L. Robinson. Interment in Old Fellows cemetery followed.

Tailbearers were Messrs. B. C. Adams, Roy Doak, J. A. Meredith, Ben Kavanaugh, John Keeton, Jay Gore, Alonzo Phillips, and Ed Underwood.

Surviving her are three children, J. A. Roane, of Iuka, and Mesdames Fred Lickfold and Robert Townes, of Grenada; one brother, Dr. J. S. Sharp, of Grenada, and two sisters, Mrs. Bird Sharp, of Grenada and Mrs. A. H. House, of Texarkana.

To the bereaved ones, we express our deepest sympathy.

Worsham Asks Re-Election As Circuit Clerk

TO THE CITIZENS OF GRENADA COUNTY:

In announcing my candidacy for re-election for Circuit Clerk of Grenada County, Mississippi, I first want to thank you for electing me to serve you the four years that I am now serving and for your many courtesies, your encouragement and your cooperation.

To the Bar and to the Court I want to express my appreciation for your patience and helpfulness at all times but especially during the time I was learning the duties of office.

When I announced for the office of Circuit Clerk in 1939, I told you that if I was elected I would give you a sober, fair and impartial administration. I also told you that I would always be on the job or have some one there. You gave me the office, my record speaks for itself.

On the record that I have made as a public officer I am asking the voters of Grenada County to consider my candidacy for re-election and if you see fit to elect me again as your Circuit Clerk, I will promise you the same sober, fair and impartial administration.

Thanking you for the honor you heretofore bestowed upon me by electing me your Circuit Clerk, I am, Your friend,

CHARLIE J. WORSHAM

Pvt. Emmett Baker Wins 3-Day In Ping Pong Meet

There may be easier ways to win a three-day pass, but none more thrilling.

Pvt. Emmett Baker waded through a two-day ping pong tournament last week in the Day Room of the 443d Air Base Squadron, Grenada Army Air Base, to capture the coveted award.

Coming into the finals, after easily disposing of his first three opponents, Baker was set back in a 21-17 struggle at the hands of Pvt. Ted Oxman. But the champion bounced back into the win column with a rally which again netted scores of 21-17 in the two deciding games.

Runners-up to the finalists were Sgt. Hargard Bush and Cpl. Burton Ellsenberg.

Others who participated in the Grenada Army Air Base tournament were Corporal James Cotnam, and Privates Gene Nance, Arthur Provine, Adam Nible, Gene Regins, Sol Solomon, Sid Newman, James Mills, Jas. Cobb, John Bevilacqua, and Edwin Cambridge.

Promoted To Captain At Camp Stewart

His many friends in this county will be delighted to hear that Sam J. Simmons, County Superintendent of Education on indefinite leave, has been promoted to Captain, Coast Artillery and is now serving at Camp Stewart, Georgia as Adjutant of an Anti-Air-

He was accepted for active duty as second lieutenant on February 28, 1942, promoted to first lieutenant June 29, 1942, and to Captain March 1, 1943. He has served at Camp Eustis, Va., Camp Davis, Georgia and is now at Camp Stewart, Georgia.

Congratulations, Captain.

Charter Changes Probably Will Be Abandoned

It has developed that one of two things will happen to the proposed Charter changes, permitting the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to appoint the City Marshal and the City Clerk: first the Board will call an election on the subject at the next regular meeting or, at its option, at a called meeting, or, second, abandon the idea entirely.

At the January meeting, a petition containing about 200 names was presented asking an election on the subject. The Board turned the petition over to the City Election Commission to report back at the February meeting whether there were sufficient names thereon to warrant an election. The Election Commission reported back that there were 8 less than 20 percent of the qualified electors on the petition—they, acting on the theory that TWENTY percent was necessary. Now it develops that only TEN percent was necessary. Inasmuch as there was more than ten percent on the petition, the Board is under the legal necessity of calling an election or, as an alternative, forgetting the matter entirely.

Twenty-Five Men Sworn In As Warrant Officers

Twenty-five men totaling 150 years in service were sworn in as warrant officers by Lt. Col. Mark Amen, Adjutant General of the 57th Infantry Division, Major General F. W. Clarkson, division commander, presented certificates.

The new warrant officers, representing twelve states, including Louis E. Liff of Cleveland, Tenn., and Harbison E. Trigg of Hattiesburg, Miss. The men averaging in years of service from 23 to eight months are the first to receive the warrant officer grade through the 57th division. Warrant officers are chosen from the ranks of enlisted men and non-commissioned officers. They are addressed as "Mr." and are placed in special branches of the division with privileges equaling those of second lieutenants.

The complete list of men who received the warrant officer grade include LaVerne H. Walker, Samuel Wolborn, Seamon E. Lalleau, Francis E. White, Elmer Schmitt, Paul K. Elam, Floyd A. Nance, Philip L. Rosenberg, Donald L. Volkert, Walton E. East, Ray M. Bushee, Adolf J. Papernik, Thomas J. McGraw, Robert E. Rosch, Mervin H. Sandlin, Adam Kerbs John O. Wagner, Sanford Ziegler, Harold F. Holts, Percie L. Brown, Orin P. Lewis, John W. Brady and John F. Maxwell.

Butch McKnight, the county assessor, is spending his own good money asking folks to come in and sign up for their Homestead Exemption before it is too late. Signing up is worth money to you. You have to sign a new one every year.

Foncie DuBoise, World War Veteran, Buried Tuesday

Mr. Foncie DuBoise died at his home on West Govan Street in this city on Monday morning, March 8, 1943 after an illness of some length.

He was born near Paynes, Tallahatchie county, on August 16, 1892 and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin DuBoise. He attended the schools that the times and the community afforded. When the war clouds gathered back in 1917-1918, Foncie DuBoise stepped forward and did his bit toward defeating those who are now menacing civilization itself. He was an expert automobile mechanic and worked many years with Moss Brothers, the Chevrolet dealers in Grenada. Afterwards he moved out on 51 near the Mullin place and operated a repair shop and garage of his own. Ill health forced him to quit active work, when he moved to Grenada to live.

He was quiet and unostentatious in his manner and seemed to have the faculty of getting on with everyone, and, as a consequence, had thousands of friends who grieve at his untimely passing. He was married on October 21, 1923.

Services were held at the home of his daughter on No. 7 Highway near Grenada and were in charge of the American Legion, Rev. E. R. Henderson being the pastor. A detail of United States soldiers from Camp McCain blew "Taps" and fired a volley over the grave of the deceased. Legion members served as pallbearers.

Surviving him are his widow and the following children, all of Grenada: Mrs. George Martin, Mrs. J. D. Urry, Miss DeLores DuBoise, Miss Frances DuBoise and Mrs. Donald DuBoise. The following brothers and sisters also survive: Mr. Dee DuBoise, of Jackson, Miss. Mr. Manley DuBoise, of Grenada, Mr. Olie DuBoise, Mrs. Modie Carpenter, Mrs. Hester Baker, Mrs. Curtis Vaughn, Mrs. Nora Bell Hutchison and Mrs. Della Rushlow, to all of whom we express our sincere sympathy.

H. J. Ray Resigns From Board of Aldermen

Mr. H. J. Ray, President of the Grenada Trust and Banking Company, and alderman from West Ward, who was elected about eight months ago to take the place of Harry Burkle as one of the Aldermen from West Ward, resigned at the meeting of the City Council Monday night, his resignation to be effective April 1.

Whether his resignation was formally accepted or not, we do not know, but Mr. Ray stated to us that it might as well be accepted as he was through.

Ed McCormick Announces for Re-Election To House

Mr. Ed G. McCormick this week asked us to announce that he is a candidate for election to the post of Representative from Grenada County to Mississippi's Lower House.

He is running on his record of 12 years of service in the legislature, 5 years as Grenada County's representative, and four years as the floater from Grenada-Montgomery counties.

His record will bear out his statement that he is thoroughly independent in his thinking and in his votes; that he "votes for the bill for its virtues" and not for its sponsor. He studies BOTH sides and, like a conscientious jurymen, votes the way that he thinks is the better for the state. Just because some big shot, like Mr. Blank, or Governor Blank is for a bill does not mean that Ed is for that bill unless his own thinking and his own conscience dictates that way. He is not, and never has been a rubber stamp.

He states that he is personally acquainted with each of the four candidates for Governor, and whoever is elected, he will have the entire to the office where he can, without embarrassment of any kind, discuss matters with the Chief Executive.

During the last term, when the city and county were working to secure passage of a special bill to permit the purchase of the Hayward land for an airport, Mr. McCormick was able to get the bill passed in spite of a majority report against it and in spite of the opposition of the chairman and the vice-chairman of the committee to which the bill was referred for recommendation. This action pleased the way for the huge Army Air Base, now such an asset to this community.

There is little to add to the above for Mr. McCormick, having made four campaigns, is known by all of the voters of the county.

The City Council authorized the building of two intramural, one in "West Ward", for the colored soldiers, and another in the uptown section, for use of white soldiers.

A good move.

MEN OF THE Infantry Division

Commanding Officer of the 347th Infantry is Colonel Lloyd R. Besse, whose extensive travels in the Philippines has made him very familiar with the Pacific War.

Born August 30, 1892, in San Antonio,

COLONEL LLOYD R. BESSE

lo, Texas, Colonel Lloyd R. Besse began a life the major portion of which has been spent in service with the United States Army. After completing his preparatory education at West Military Academy, he entered the 1st Officer Candidate Training Camp at Leon Springs, Texas, 1917. Upon successfully completing the course of instruction, he accepted a provisional commission in the Regular Army with the rank of 2nd Lieutenant.

Lieutenant Besse was assigned to the 21st Infantry at San Diego, Calif., and remained with this regiment from 1917 to 1921. During his tour of duty with the 21st Infantry, he spent two years in Alaska. While at this post, he learned the real meaning of the phrase "in addition to other duties," as he was Post Exchange Officer, Camp Quartermaster, Police and Prison Officer, Provost Marshal, Finance Officer, Transportation Officer and many others.

Immediately upon his return from Alaska, he was assigned to the 25th Infantry at Nagales, Arizona and was sent from this station to the "Company Officers' Course" at the Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia. He spent the next five years as Assistant Professor of Military Science and Tactics at Texas A. and M. and then rejoined the 7th Infantry at Vancouver Barracks, Washington. In 1929 he rejoined the 25th Infantry at Nagales, Arizona and served with his old outfit until he was sent to the Philippines Islands for a tour of duty as a member of the Philippine Division Staff at Fort McKinley from 1932 to 1935.

After returning to the States, he was assigned to the 38th Infantry, Ft. Douglas, Salt Lake City. In June, 1936 he was appointed Post Exchange Officer at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. For two years he served as a aide to Lieutenant Stanley H. Ford, headquarters, 6th Corp. Chicago, Illinois and later for one year as aide to Major General Charles Benetzel.

In July 1941, Colonel Besse was assigned to the New Infantry Replacement Center at Camp Vulture, Texas, as Camp Executive Officer and while with this station, he attended the Command and General Staff School at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. When the 70th Infantry Division was reactivated he commanded a battalion of the new 314th Infantry Regiment. In September, 1942, he was relieved and assumed command of the 347th Infantry upon its activation at Camp McCain, Mississippi.

Colonel Besse served in company grade until August 15, 1935 when he received his majority. He was promoted to Lieutenant Colonel in August, 1940, and received his colonel's commission October 22, 1942, which rank he holds at the present time.

During the time Colonel Besse was in the Philippines and Alaska, his duties required that he travel extensively and as a result he is familiar with much of the terrain over which the Pacific War is being fought.

Colonel and Mrs. Besse have their home in Coffeeville, Mississippi, at the present time.

City Marshal To Be Sent To FBI School In Washington

Mr. Willard W. Odom, Marshal of the City of Grenada, will shortly leave for Washington to take an intensive law-enforcement course at the Federal Bureau of Investigation school. This course and this action and the expense thereof were authorized at the regular meeting of the City Council Monday night.

Local and Social Activities

Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, Society Editor, Phone 88 and 747

MIZELL-HORTON

Miss Lola Belle Horton, of Grenada, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James L. Horton, of Louisville, Miss., and Cpl. Pat M. Mizell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tucker Mizell, of Gadsden, Ala., were united in marriage at a quiet ceremony Thursday evening at 9 o'clock, March 4, 1942, at the home of the Methodist minister, Rev. James H. Holder, of Winona.

The bride is a graduate of Louisville High School and East Central Junior College, is a member of the Grenada Bank office staff. She is a charming young lady with many friends in North Mississippi, who will read of her marriage with interest. The groom is a graduate of Gadsden schools and is now a soldier at Camp McCain.

The young couple will reside in Grenada.

MRS. MORGAN HONORED

Mrs. Anna Morgan was honored by her niece, Mrs. Thelma Harris, on Thursday last at a small supper party at her home on Franklin. This lovely occasion was inspired by the fact that Mrs. Morgan was celebrating her birthday on that day. Several of Mrs. Morgan's friends formed the invitation list.

Ensign Vassar Dubard, Jr., who has been on duty at a Submarine base near Florida, is being transferred to a northern base. He arrived home Tuesday of this week and will be here for several days. When Ensign Dubard was enroute home he stopped at the home of his cousins, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Lipscomb and family in Jackson, and Mrs. Lipscomb and little son, Lewis, accompanied him to Dubard's home of the Dubard family. Mrs. Lipscomb and son returned to Jackson on Wednesday.

Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Billy Weisker returned to Barksdale Field, La., on Friday last after a three day visit with their parents here.

Misses Lucille and Georgia Cook spent Wednesday in Memphis attending to business for their popular shop, "The Novelty Shop."

Mrs. H. H. Cullen and attractive daughter, "Bebe" visited their daughter and sister, Miss Mary Lou Cullen, a freshman at M. R. C. W. this past week-end.

It "T" Mann, from New Jersey visited his mother and wife this past week end and left Tuesday morning to resume his duties as a flying lieutenant. His wife left Wednesday for return trip to New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster were happy to have their two attractive daughters at home the past week end. Miss Daphne Shaw, a student at Delta State was here for Spring holidays and Miss Warren Sharp, Medical Technician student at the Sanitarium at Vicksburg, came for a visit with her parents and sister.

Mrs. Cecil Jones was called to the bedside of her sister, who resides in Jackson, Miss., on Tuesday of this week.

Miss Jewel Davis, one of the popular graduate nurses of Grenada Hospital is now doing post graduate work at the Children's Hospital at Akron, Ohio. She left last week for her new duties.

Mrs. W. O. Scott and Mrs. "D." Wilkins, of Duck Hill, were in Grenada on Tuesday. Mrs. Wilkins stated that her brother, wounded in Africa has returned to America and is in Birmingham, enroute home for a furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes and daughter, Miss Eloise, have returned to their home in Chicago after a visit here with their sister and aunt, Mrs. Cobb Trusty and with relatives in the delta.

Mr. and Mrs. Potts Williams and baby, Cecil, of Sardia, were guests of their mother, Mrs. Van Williams, last week.

Mrs. Eloise Wilkins and daughter, Miss Eloise, spent Friday last in Memphis.

Pvt. Billy Lance, who has been in the hospital in New Orleans, was pleased to have a visit from his parents this past week.

News from Mrs. Annie Jones who has spent the winter at the Riviera Hotel at Biloxi, is that she expects to go to Monroe, La., for a brief visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ralph King and then return to Grenada about April first.

Miss Cynthia Wade accompanied her friend, Miss Mary Elizabeth Thayer on her week-end visit to her parents who reside in Greenville, Miss.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Cox, of Jackson, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood recently.

Dr. and Mrs. Goyer, of Hattiesburg, spent the past week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Willis at Graysport.

MRS. HAYWARD COMPLIMENTED
Mrs. E. C. Hayward, Jr., popular young matron who with her family have moved to Oklahoma City to reside, was beautifully complimented on several occasions the week before her departure.

On Wednesday, February 17, Mrs. Hayward was the honoree at a bridge luncheon given by Mrs. W. M. Sutton. Lovely pink carnations were used effectively to decorate the reception room and the pink motif was emphasized in place cards and luncheon service. The honoree wore a lovely spring ensemble and chose a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Hayward's mother, Mrs. Geeslin was co-honoree. Two tables were arranged for games and luncheon was served at one o'clock.

MRS. GERAUD HOSTESS

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. F. S. Gerard entertained in honor of Mrs. Hayward at her apartment home with a two table bridge party and shower. The rooms were attractively decorated with spring flowers, creating a festive setting for this lovely courtesy. After several rubbers of bridge the hostess presented Mrs. Hayward a box containing personal gifts from the guests and then served a delightful dessert course.

MRS. YOUNGBLOOD COMPLIMENTED MRS. HAYWARD

Mrs. P. H. Youngblood entertained at an all day bridge and luncheon at her lovely country home in honor of her friend, Mrs. Hayward. Mrs. Geeslin was again co-honoree. Bridge games were enjoyed in the morning and more guests arrived at luncheon time. After luncheon was finished bridge games were again resumed and in the late afternoon Iced Coca-Cola and canapés were served.

Mrs. Hayward was presented a traveling kit filled with cosmetics, a gift from the guests present at this lovely party.

MRS. JOHN WADE ENTERTAINED

On Monday Mrs. John Wade was a gracious hostess complimenting Mrs. Hayward. Five guests were welcomed at noon at which time a beautiful plate containing a cold salad luncheon was served.

The home was attractively arranged for this occasion, and yellow spring flowers decorated the reception rooms. Bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon hours.

MESDAMES G. W. AND J. E. MURRAY ARE HOSTESSES

Monday afternoon Mesdames G. W. and J. E. Murray were co-hostesses entertaining guests at bridge in honor of Mrs. Hayward. A charming patriotic George Washington motif was carried out in all appointments, and lovely spring flowers were used effectively. For this party, the honoree wore a spring suit of black and chose a corsage of white carnations.

Sandwiches and Coca-Cola were served at intermission and the hostesses presented a farewell gift of cosmetics to their popular guest of honor.

MRS. DUBOIS HONORS MRS. HAYWARD

Tuesday evening Mrs. J. B. Dubois entertained formally in honor of Mrs. Hayward. Receiving with Mrs. Dubois were the honoree and Mrs. Barksdale.

For this occasion the hostess was attired in lovely pink formal frock, the honoree chose a formal of white and Mrs. Barksdale who was in the receiving line, wore a lovely blue formal. Each wore a corsage of white carnations tied with the national colors.

The floral decorations were especially lovely at this party, being of red carnations in white containers and arranged so as to form a "V."

The tally cards and nut cups were in red, white and blue and the gift, a lovely costume pin given by the hostess was arranged in a case tied with the red, white and blue ribbons.

Another "group" favor was a package of letters from close friends of the honoree and these letters, to be opened each day were prefaced with this original poem.

"Read one a day, and no weeping
Tell us what you think, but no weeping."

Refreshments at this lovely affair were served before the several enjoyable rubbers of bridge were played.

Miss Lil York, student at M. R. C. W. visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank York the past week-end.

Miss Louise Arent, freshman at Ole Miss, visited her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Arent the past week-end.

Miss Kathleen Singleton, of Holcomb, a graduate of Delta State College, has come to Grenada to work at the Air Base. She will room with her childhood chum, Mrs. C. C. Provine, Jr., who is the former Miss Sue Rowell.

Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Stacy visited their relatives Dr. and Mrs. Stacy in Water Valley one day recently.

Mrs. J. L. Acce received a message Wednesday morning that her brother, Mr. C. A. Cornick, of Sicily Island, La., had passed away at a hospital in Houston, Texas.

WILL GRADUATE MARCH 15TH

The four young ladies shown above will finish their courses as Student Nurses at Grenada General Hospital on March 15, 1943, and become Graduate Nurses. Following their examination by the board in Jackson, they will be entitled to use the letters, "R. N." following their names.

IRIS CLUB MEETS

Mrs. John King delightfully entertained the members of the Iris Club at her spacious Colonial home on Main Street last Thursday afternoon with a beautifully planned tea. As the club members and extra guests arrived they were escorted to the dining room where spiced lemon tea and refreshments consisting of dainty turkey sandwiches, toasted cheese sandwiches, cakes, olive and pickle and those delicious tiny cake muffins stuffed with whipped cream, were served buffet style. Mrs. Jay Gore presided at the tea service.

The table, draped with lace, was centered by a large floral piece of daffodils and Spring Iris. Assisting in the dining room, were the hostess and Miss Juliette Doak. At this meeting the names of the president and treasurer to serve for the ensuing year were announced. Mrs. J. K. Arent is to serve again as president and Mrs. E. R. Proudfoot as treasurer.

The name "Iris Club" was bestowed upon the club by those ladies who have done so much to forward the planting and culture of the many beautiful Iris grown so successfully here in Grenada, and at their regular club meeting last Thursday one realized that each member present was as deeply if not more interested in Iris culture now than ever before. There are gardens in Grenada where Iris bloom the year round and in all gardens are the regular Spring variety of deep blue and snowy white. In the absence of the president, Mrs. J. K. Arent, Mrs. Will Hill presided. On the program was talented Laverne Wilson who gave a splendid and patriotic reading. Mrs. F. A. Stacy gave a most interesting and informative talk illustrated by a chart, about year round Iris beauty in the garden. Surely her talk was most inspiring.

The April meeting will be held at the country home of Mrs. T. B. Revell.

Several guests other than club members were present to enjoy this lovely occasion.

Pvt. Dennis Harrison, of U. S. Air Corps, has been here visiting his wife and other relatives in Grenada recently.

Miss Louise Sanderson has returned from Monroe, La., where she visited her aunt. She will work at the Air Base.

April 1st, The Closing Date On Crop Insurance

Protection from the time seed is planted until the crop is weighed in at the gin is offered Grenada county farmers who insure this year's cotton crop.

Cotton crop insurance, which is being written in the county AAA office for the second year, covers either 50 or 75 percent of the average yield, based on past production records.

Comparing cotton crop insurance to other kinds of insurance, Hubert Clark, chairman, Grenada County AAA committee, explained this week that farmers should view it from a protection standpoint rather than from a monetary standpoint.

"People don't take fire, health or accident insurance because they hope to collect an indemnity the year they happen to buy the insurance. They buy it for protection and that's the way cotton farmers should look at cotton insurance," he continued.

Cotton insurance protects farmers during the most hazardous time of production, when the crop is growing

THE HOME FRONT

There's been considerable talk about the draft, but the latest dope indicates that men will continue to be called in the following order:

Single men (1-B); first, those who have dependents but aren't contributing to the war effort (3-A), next, single men with dependents who have war-vital jobs (3-B); third,

The fourth group is a set of includes men with wives, only (3-A), whose work isn't classed as war-ful; fifth, those with wives who are in the war effort (3-B). Sixth, common men not in war work who have children, (3-A); and last in order come fellows with children who are in the war effort. So, to be in the draft line, besides the "3-A" or "3-B" classification.

GOOD SCRAPP

Southern states have done a magnificent job of collecting scrap. The nation as a whole contributed 35 percent of its quota. Southern states showed as follows: Texas, 17 percent; Georgia, 12 1/2 percent; Alabama, 10 1/2 percent; South Carolina, 8 percent; Mississippi, 8 percent; and North Carolina, 8 1/2 percent.

Only one Southern state, Oklahoma, fell far below its quota.

More than 12 million pairs of silk and rayon stockings have been salvaged for war use by women. They'll make a lot of parachutes.

FAT FROM THE FIRE

Collections of waste kitchen fats, used to make munitions, haven't been so successful as metal and silk hose salvage. But fats are just as badly needed in war industries.

Rationing of kerosene and fuel oil for farm use, cooking and lighting has been placed on a six-months basis to reduce the number of trips folks have to make to their OPA rationing boards.

STREAMLINED COFFINS

Nifty caskets all padded in silk and wool and lined with rayon trimmings, are due for simplification. And coffins will be smaller, according to a new WTB order. Five million yards of rayon and 12 million board feet of lumber will be saved annually this way.

Last month established a shipbuilding record—190 American vessels slid down the ways. More ships were delivered in the first two months of this year than in the first six months of 1942.

STRETCH THE RUBBER

Our most critical period is rubber is expected next fall and winter. That's why rules have been relaxed to permit tires recapping without asking the rationing board for a certificate.

Food must be stretched, too. Secretary of Agriculture Wickard declares the food rationing phase of war-time living isn't going to be pleasant 24 hours. But he says, "we shall all have all we need to eat, even if we have to forego some of the food that we would like to eat."

Home vegetable gardens are one answer.

You'll save more clothes for our cleaning service, and no wonder!! Clothes do more than clean when we clean them.

Peanuts And Soy Beans

The theorists in Washington hope to increase the available amount of edible oils by encouraging the production of peanuts and soy beans throughout the Southland.

In many counties, like Grenada county, where last year there were more peanuts sold for seed than were brought back for sale, and where the soy bean production was little more favorable, it would be far better to turn the farmers loose and let them raise cotton for seed—a crop they know something about and a crop they have tools, labor and equipment to make.

Nearly every farmer in Grenada county raises a few rows of "gubbers" for his own use. Hand labor and crude tools only are available to gather these "gubbers." Laboriously dug by a shovel, the vines are inverted for a time to let the vine wilt, then laboriously the peanuts, one by one, are picked off the vine by hand; after which the crop is spread on the roof of the crib or the roof of the back porch to become thoroughly dry. Three bushels is a BIG crop for a family here; and it is a BIG job raising that many. Some sections of the South, particularly Southern Alabama, are adapted to peanut culture, and the communities there are organized, from the banks down to finance and handle the crop. In such sections peanut raising has become mechanized.

The soy bean is a comparatively new crop in Grenada county. About all which have been planted are just barely enough to get the parity payment. Few people possess the mechanical equipment to plant, cultivate and harvest the beans economically. Certainly no small farmer has any such equipment. The delta section of Mississippi with wide, open fields stretching almost endlessly is ideally adapted to the cultivation and harvesting of soy beans economically, and the planters there have equipped themselves to do so. These circumstances may be behind the vociferous demands of the delta planters to let cotton acreage remain.

It seems to me that the PRIME object is to produce MORE edible fats and oil. ONE set of regulations cannot be adapted to each of the conditions throughout the South. Therefore, if Grenada County can produce MORE oil from MORE cotton, let Grenada County (and similar counties) produce extra oil from cotton; let the peanut sections produce more peanuts; let the delta and other sections where soy beans can be produced economically produce more soy beans.

This action is tempting Providence by the legal restriction of the production of ANY food. LAST year was a fine crop year with abundant harvests—yet we have shortages. THIS year may be a poor crop year, with scanty harvests—and we may have hunger.

Grandpa

I had to see Pa Whitaker.
 I knew events were strong,
 And in a case like this,
 Pa always likes a song.

His cheeks were pink,
 Not quite a blush, you know,
 He was very, very happy,
 And his face was all aglow.

"I'm in the happy circle now!
 I'VE GOT A GRAND-CHILD,
 And she really is a wow!"

"From politics, I now with-draw.
 The city board can run the town,
 Affairs of state, I leave to F. D. R.
 I'll even let the School Trust down.

"To celebrate my jubilee,
 I'm gonna let my whiskers grow.
 And my favorite sport, henceforth shall be
 To trot my grand-child on my knee."

—Lady Byron

Keep Your Lips Closed

Citizens, who are not members of the military force, will be assisting the war effort and ultimate victory by forming the habit of keeping their lips sealed, and not ask questions of soldiers, that are of a military nature. Likewise, they will assist greatly the command at Camp McCain by reporting any soldier, who may engage in loose talk concerning military matters, to the Provost Marshall at Camp McCain.

(Released by military authorities at Camp McCain.)

Shortage or Surplus?

Cotton is a world commodity. Its two major products are cotton lint and cottonseed. Much is being said about a surplus of lint cotton. What are the facts? On December 31, available data indicate there was on hand in the United States about 17,500,000 bales of lint cotton. Consumption, exports, destroyed, and so forth, from January 1 to July 31 will approximate 7,800,000 bales, and that will leave a carry-over of about 9,700,000 bales in the United States.

As a lump sum, that is a lot of cotton, but cotton is not consumed in lump sums, and the new crop will not be available for use in quantity for nearly 2 months after August 1. At the rate of present consumption in the United States and export, there is need, therefore, for a total carry-over in mills and channels of trade on August 1 of from 5,000,000 to 6,000,000 bales of cotton supply of the quantities being consumed and exported in the interim.

Estimates based on Government statistics and sales by merchants indicate that on December 31 there were about 1,000,000 bales of cotton in the country shorter than seven-eighths inch. It is possible that 1,500,000 bales of this cotton will be in the carry-over July 31, and a large part of it may be considered as surplus in terms of United States consumption, through the bedding industry may take much more than indicated and some of it may have to be used in explosives.

The total supply of seven-eighths and twenty-nine thirty-seconds inch in the United States on December 31 was about 4,200,000 bales, and consumption is now at the rate of about 140,000 bales per month. If sufficient supplies of other staples of proper grades were available, there would probably be a carry-over of this cotton of over 3,000,000 bales, some of this can and probably will be substituted for fifteen-sixteenths inch.

The total supply of fifteen sixteenths and thirty-one thirty-seconds inch staple cotton on December 31 was about 2,000,000 bales. Should takings for these staples for the remainder of this year continue at the rate of the previous 5 months of about 330,000 bales per month, the supply of them would be exhausted.

On December 31 the total supply of 1 inch and one one-thirty-seconds-inch cotton was about 6,800,000 bales. The disappearance of these staples is at the rate of about 320,000 bales per month, and the indicated carry-over July 31 is about 3,000,000 bales.

On December 31, the supply of cotton of one and one-sixteenth inch and over amounted to about 3,400,000 bales. Disappearance of this cotton is at the rate of about 285,000 bales per month and the indicated carry-over July 31 is about 2,200,000 bales.

Viewed from the standpoint of staple lengths only, there seems to be an ample supply of all qualities except fifteen-sixteenths and thirty-one thirty-seconds inch and a possible surplus of cotton seven-eighths and under and possibly some of the staples 1½ inch and over.

The cotton supply is even higher than indicated above due to grade distribution. The great majority of American mills installed their equipment to manufacturing medium grade and staple lengths. The indicated carry-over of cotton by grades July 31, 1943, is as follows: Strict Middling and above, about 2,400,000 bales; Middling, 1,500,000 bales; Strict Low Middling, 3,400,000 bales; and Low Middling and below 2,200,000. The monthly rate of disappearance by grade is about as follows: Strict Middling and above, 110,000 bales; Middling, 400,000 bales; Strict Low Middling, 350,000 bales; and Low Middling and below, 120,000 bales. The surplus grades are apparently Low Middling and below and Strict Middling and above.

The excess supply of cotton in the United States, July 31, when measured in terms of United States consumption and an additional disappearance for the year of 1,500,000 bales will not exceed 4,000,000 bales, and the bulk of that is low-grade short-staple cotton in the hands of the Government.

Experience after the last war, when we had a similar accumulation of low-grade cotton, showed there was a tremendous demand in Europe for that cotton immediately after the war closed, for they wanted the cheapest cotton they could buy. Advances indicate that so far not many cotton spindles in Europe have been destroyed.

If we take into account the whole world demand for lint cotton including the first year after the war, we really have a deficit of some four to five million bales instead of a surplus.

Those who know the peacetime demands of Europe and the warring countries like Japan for cotton know that a supply of eight to ten million bales of cotton above our requirements could not only be disposed of but that it could be made one of the most powerful forces at our command in shaping the peace.

The shortages of cottonseed products is becoming alarming. Big bonuses are being paid for the production of vegetable oils from other crops not nearly so good as cottonseed oil. The dairy industry in Texas is suffering from an acute shortage of feed, especially high proteins, such as is supplied from cottonseed meal. The Government has taken all linters for munitions, and that is not enough to supply the demand.

Would it not be wiser to do something about the shortages in important qualities of lint cotton and of cottonseed products, rather than worry too much about a little low-grade short-staple cotton which can be disposed of readily to great advantage to us when the war ends?

When 30 Seconds...
 = 7,000,000 Minutes

Everyone who uses the telephone talked just 30 seconds less on each local call. The aggregate saving in time for our war-busy equipment would be about 7,000,000 minutes each average working day or over 13 years.

That's important time-saving these days when telephone lines are so crowded with calls, including military and government calls that help fight the war.

Won't you try to shorten your local calls—not just 30 seconds—but all that's possible? It will help a lot, too, if you can manage to make fewer local calls.

One of Dave Williams' soldier sons—he has so many in the army that I can't tell them apart, is visiting home-folks.

Sorry to hear that Archie Thompson is under the weather.

Just heard from my old boyhood friend, Joe Meaders. Both of his boys, Joe P. Jr., and John-A. are in the U. S. Navy. Old Joe, I think, is in the Merchant Marine.

Just heard over the radio that the supply of single men available for military service has become almost exhausted. Married men next, of course.

General Clarkson has been getting in some fine looking rookies. Men in the 18-20 age class make the best soldiers. The only way to kill them is to kill them dead on the spot. If their hearts beat after accidents, they will come thru. Youth has that wonderful power of recuperation that is denied older men.

I do not think that Mrs. Yeager has got Dorothy to wash any dishes yet.

MARYHARDY BAYS HAS PARTY
Maryhardy Bays, beautiful little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bays, celebrated her second birthday on Wednesday afternoon, March 3, at four o'clock in the afternoon, by inviting a bevy of lovely young friends to her birthday party. For her party she was dressed in an adorable frock of white challis with pink rose bud print. A sash of narrow velvet ribbon and hand-made lace added charm to the costume and she carried a tiny Colonial bouquet. The gifts were presented to her as the guests arrived and her delightful acceptance of each gift was truly flattering to the guests. The guests were given balloons and small horns, also "popping" favor which developed into a gay St. Patrick hat and all this added much to the gayety of the party.

Supervised games were enjoyed for an hour and then refreshments were served.

A beautiful two-tiered white cake with rose bud trim and two pink candies, was cut as the children sang "Happy Birthday to You." Delicious home made ice cream was served. Later when the little guests departed for home they were presented a dainty little basket filled with shamrock candy and this gift made a truly wonderful party more wonderful for the youngsters.

The guest list included, Mary Bess Parks, Patricia Gerard, Nancy Ren Inman, Patricia White, Russell Williams, Charles Ferrill, Bob Kruger, Sambo Caruthers, Clarice Townes, Milton Sanders, Martha Grant, Oas Heath, Jr., Donna Crenshaw, Stuart Liles, Brenda Yollies, Pete and Myrna Mistrot, Arline and Beatrice Pierce, Buddy Isenberg, Betty Burkley, Martha Fay Williams, Sonny and Sisay Scott, George Kent, Mary Leigh Garner, Sarillea Deaton, Suzette Cathey, Dianne Dubard, Ruth Elizabeth Neely, Robert Mullin, Sandra Matthews, Gloria Jean Blaylock, Mel and Mary Frances Banks, Joan Presgrove, Maxine McCune, and Sam C. Mims, IV, Cecil Williams, of Sardis, Connie Williams, of Jackson, Sue Hitt Bowers, of Hattiesburg.

Meeting Of Sardis-Grenada Ministerial Association

The meeting of the Sardis-Grenada District Ministerial Association was held at the Methodist Church Tuesday. There were representatives here from churches from Sardis to Grenada.

The theme of the program was "Conserving Values from Week of Dedication." Chaplain E. G. Overton preached at 11 o'clock on "The Cost of Christianity." Lieutenant Rasmann of Camp McCain sang a solo. Rev. L. P. Jumper, of Holcomb, made a talk on evangelism. Rev. E. H. Cunningham made a talk on missions. Rev. C. A. Parks, District Superintendent, talked on the work of the district.

These ministers brought their wives with them, and the whole group were guests of the Grenada Methodist Church at luncheon, served in the soldiers' den.

Camp McCain News

So far Camp McCain has had but one card from Leo Carroll, who was appointed an Ensign in the Navy last month, while on the construction force at Camp McCain. The card said that he wished that he had time to write, but that he had no spare minutes at all. He is at present at Princeton, New Jersey, taking the special three-month course there. His future plans, courtesy of Uncle Sam, are indelible.

His wife, Mrs. Carroll, is still here at the Camp, doing her bit for the Army. The construction force, as we say every week, is really dwindling down. One of the best liked men at Camp McCain for Georgia, last week, Mr. Samuel Wells. Mr. Wells was the Chief Building Inspector for Chas. T. Main while at Grenada, and is now employed by the J. A. Jones Construction Co. in Brunswick, Georgia. They're working on the new ship-building yards there now, you know. We all wish Mr. Wells good luck, and as much popularity as he has enjoyed here.

The Capt. Emmons are definitely gone now. Mrs. Emmons left this Saturday, for Memphis, where Jimmie was to meet her and drive to St. Louis.

And Mrs. Slim Green said her final fare-well to Grenada last week, took little Rusty with her, and went home to wait for Slim to finish the last little touches on the job here. They plan to go to Baton Rouge from here.

Al Vilane was back for a brief visit last week, after spending most of this year at Camp Rucker, Alabama, doing sprain and soddie, etc. He went right back again though.

Army officers are moving into the homes and apartments and rooms of all the construction workers. It's rather a start to see a civilian or a back private on the streets nowadays.

Speaking of officers, we will have a couple of big events to report to you next week, we hope.

The U. S. O. is still functioning beautifully, and they celebrated another fine dance this Wednesday night.

Generals are usually a long way from dances, but we just happen to be rambling along now. It seems that Lt. Gen. Lear was here at Camp McCain a little over a week ago, and spent his time... inspecting garbage cans... mostly. At one company he stopped in and said mysteriously to the Sergeant, "It looks very fine."

Sergeant... but I found something! Whereupon he sent a Major out, and the gold-leader returned clutching a small bone in his hand! Which proves that even a General has time for everything.

Speaking of bones and food, those malted milks over at the Service Club No. 2 are among the best that we have ever eaten, but they are very spasmodic. Some days the ice cream is too hard, the next day, too soft, and the next day there is no ice cream. There is evidently something definitely wrong with the freezing system, and its hard on our lunch habits.

We also hear that those steam tables that will convert the cafe into a real cafeteria will be soon installed. That will certainly speed up the food line, and no one can complain about the service.

Now that the quarantine scare about is over again, the lads are spending their three night at home again.

A Call To Prayer Goes Out To All People

You are invited to join in a fellowship of prayer the world around on the annual World Day of Prayer to be observed Friday, March 12, 1948 at 3 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church. Theme: "Father, I Pray that They May All be One."

Amid the horrors of a world at war, amid the destruction, desolation and the frightful din of battle, may the peoples of the whole world unite together in prayer and call upon all the children of God to meditate upon the unchanging, creative God who made us in His own image.

Red Cross Needs Knitters

Miss Jane Young states that the knitting of garments, such as mufflers, gloves and sweaters, also the cutting and making of Red Cross garments, has dropped off alarmingly here lately, and asked that we make a plea thru the paper to the ladies of Grenada county to volunteer to do this much needed and patriotic work.

The yarn for sweaters can be secured from Miss Cook at the Novelty Shop.

Begin this week to do this work. Call Miss Jane Young, 159 or Mrs. O. C. Penn, 220 for further information.

AMERICAN LEGION TO HAVE MEETING FRIDAY, MARCH 12TH

The American Legion of Grenada County, Post 25, will hold their regular meeting Friday night, March 12th, at the Legion Hall 8 o'clock.

All members are urged to be present. Important meeting.

"Health For Victory Club" Being Organized

The "Health For Victory Club," sponsored by the Iris Club of Grenada is being formed now, and the first meeting will be held on March 17th, at 3 o'clock at the Methodist Church kitchen.

This club is being instructed by Mrs. Odell Gillis, Home Service Advisor for Miss. Power and Light Co., and will extend over a period of six months. There is a small fee of 85c per member, covering the charge for the six months planned, Victory Diet, and every housewife, be it wife, mother or sister, are welcomed as members, at these demonstrations, the food cooked will be given out as prizes.

Regular meeting date is the third Wednesday of each month and at these meetings a complete meal planning diet will be given by Mrs. Gillis. We urge every lady in Grenada to plan now to take this course. Call Mrs. J. K. Aven, Pres. of Iris Club or Mrs. E. H. Prouditt, Secretary of Iris Club, or enroll at the kitchen next Wednesday.

Doty Residence Damaged By Fire Monday

Friends of the Doty family will learn with regret that their family residence on College Street suffered damages by fire Monday afternoon about 2:30. Mr. Walter Doty stated Tuesday morning that an estimate of the damage hadn't been made but for the present he and his wife would be able to live in several of the down stairs rooms. Mrs. Doty's mother, Mrs. Roseman, is the house guest of Mrs. John King, friend and close neighbor of the Doty family.

SERVICE MEN GIVEN PARTY

The service men's lounge of the First Baptist Church was the scene of a very lovely party Tuesday night. Gladioli were used to beautify the room. Sixty young ladies and matrons acted as hostesses. The pastor, assistant pastor and deacons acted as hosts.

100 soldiers serving in the Signal Corps at Camp McCain were the special guests. This group was made up mostly of the teen age boys, many from Mississippi and this was their first trip out of camp since their induction.

After they were welcomed by the pastor a splendid program was presented. The first part was given by the church members under the direction of Mrs. Proby and the second part by the soldiers. Delicious homemade cake and sweet milk was served at 10 o'clock.

Saturated Or Superheated

A good many years ago practically all locomotives were what is now known as SATURATED, by that I mean when the water in the boiler was turned into steam and the engineer opened the throttle, the steam rushed from steam dome into a big pipe and down to the cylinders and after pushing the piston one way escaped to the air and made that choo! choo! sound.

A SMART MAN

A smart man decided that we were not getting enough power for the amount of fuel used, so he invented what is known as a HEADER and fastened it up in front end of boiler with some tubes going back thru the flues and then back to front end so that when engineer opened the throttle the steam would go back to fire box to be reheated before going to cylinders.

In this way the water was all taken out and steam was so hot and dry it had lots of extra power without using any more fuel.

I'VE BEEN TOLD

I've been told that we don't use all of our thinking capacity on account of it being hard work also we are SATURATED with so many old customs and ideas, it's hard to break away from the regular beaten path. It seems that the days are not far distant when the old customers and ideas will be passing away and we will have to a superheater to go down the line.

More to stop this talk about him running for sheriff and other things. Dave Williams told us to place his name in the announcement column for reelection as Supervisor of Beat Three this week. A formal announcement will appear later.

Well, the old lady and I are now grandparents, as Andrew and May have a little daughter, Shirley May, born at the hospital Sunday afternoon.

Shirley May is the only grandchild in either our family or the Bailey family. John Bailey and I will now have to take a back seat. I can get a sand box and a box of snuff and John can get plenty of tobacco and matches and we can sit back, for the grandmothers will pay little attention to us henceforth.

Speaking of grandparents, etc. a little boy, returning from Sunday School, was asked by his mother who the teacher was, and replied, "Jesus' grandmother." "Why do you say that, son," asked the mother. The little fellow replied, "She talked about Him so much."

An expectant father was pacing nervously up and down the hall outside the maternity ward and said, "I hope it is not a boy, so that he will not have to go through this when he is a man."

Well, I guess the war will soon be over for Roy Doak has an "ad" this week and next week.

In the light of events which necessitate the calling of an election on the proposed charter change, the board of aldermen might as well forget the election. To carry this election, it would be necessary for a majority of THOSE QUALIFIED TO VOTE to go to the polls and vote affirmatively. This will NEVER happen, even if it should so happen that a majority of people is in favor of the change—which I doubt very seriously.

We have had so many new subscribers and renewers that it has been impossible to keep up with them in this column. However, I believe I should mention that my cousin, R. D. McLean, Jr., of Doddville, (whom I have never seen) sent in the money for two Doddville citizens, J. L. Butler and W. E. Price. By the way Cousin Robert, does Mr. Butler get his mail at Doddville? You did not mention the address in your letter. Look at the stork column.

Congratulations to the City Council upon its plan to build two latrines, one near the square for white soldiers and one near "West Ward" for the colored soldiers. They are badly needed.

Here Mr. Top, sum baddy told me that you couldn't hardly find me in corner in Jaxon these days, as he is out heating the bushes, etc.

The Rent Control Office informs me that, while the Indiana District Judge rules the Rent Control Act unconstitutional, there have been many other decisions upholding it. In my editorial last week, I tried to make it clear that the United States Supreme Court would have the final "say" in the matter.

Our son, Whyte, Jr. in the Tank Destroying Battalion is having a fine war, working only about 12-15 hours a day. Our other son, Andrew, in the Air Corps in Jackson, has to work 6 hours, then they just let him off for only 36 hours, poor fellow!

The GOW is still headquarters for all kinds of military stationery. We can make ANY kind, with ANY emblem.

Our favorite correspondent and our favorite assistant correspondent spent the week-end in Greenville.

Favorite Blonde was at the Pix last week. My favorite blonde has been here all the time.

Earl Hayes, of Albany, Georgia, has been added to the list. I used to go to school at Ga. Tech. 1907-1912, and knew some fellows (now grandfathers, like myself) who lived in Albany.

Showing that the people in Grenada county are in better financial shape than in a long time, look at the delinquent tax list which, to my personal knowledge, is shorter than it has been at any time from 1903 to date.

Pvt. Andrew D. Whitaker spent a couple of days in camp last week.

I think I just saw a lady of the evening pass.

Catherine Herring, Bookkeeping.
Mary Nell Bayburn, Typing.
Mary Cornick, Home Economics.
Last year Grenada High School won first place in the North Central District Literary Events and with a few points from the track team won first place in the State for combined events. Come in G. H. S. we "have done it before and we can do it again!"

CHAPEL

Mr. Rundle conducted chapel Wednesday. He talked on the subject of "A Life without a Purpose is Empty." He emphasized that we should all try to live "lofty and purposeful lives."

Mr. Rundle announced that the Annual Junior play will be presented on March 10th. Exact time and prices will be announced later. Coach announced the names of the contestants to enter the district literary meet this year. The literary examinations are to be held in Grenada on March 20.

GLEE CLUB PREPARING FOR FESTIVAL

The members of the girls' Glee Club have been working on the very difficult three-part selections on Wings of Song. There will be twenty-four contestants in the group. The girls' quartet will sing "O Thou From Whom All Blessings Flow" and will be unaccompanied. The quartet consists of Joyce Chestnut, Julia Marie Guidry, Stella Irby, and Pauline Elliott.
12th Grade, Mary Nell Bayburn.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—in the risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, swelling, or night-tinge pains, swelling—feet constantly throbbing, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

G. H. S. DIRT

"O worry, worry, toil and trouble." Those are the words on the lips of many of the seniors of G. H. S. The reason for this could be nothing but the census. Joe and Lucy venture only to the houses that contain a good warm fire. It's rumored that Joe sticks his foot in the door, so that no one can slam the door in their faces!

If you see many of the G. H. S. boys limping around school, with sprained ankles, broken noses, and sleeping in classes more than usual, don't be alarmed! It's just that spring football season has started.

Miss Turner's fifth period class was honored by a visit from last year's editor-in-chief of the Bulldog. Everyone was glad to see Caroline.

We have at last found the answer to the question "Why have Lucy and Marguerite looked so unhappy lately?" It seems that two particular Sergeants have been quarantined for two whole weeks.

a happy light in her eyes. There's one reason for this. She's been hearing from Robert lately.

If you don't know what Lynn's thoughts dwell on—you should have been in government class Monday. Just ask Coach.

Our "Casanova" for this week is Joe McKell. Ask him to let you peer inside his billfold—and just look at the good looking girls! One in particular is a brunette cheer-leader from Memphis. You'd better watch him, Beebe!

Who works at Yelle's that Warren is so interested in seeing home every night?

Lynn and Marguerite certainly seemed to enjoy taking that census last week. What about that, Jay?

Munford was back last week-end and everyone enjoyed seeing him, especially "Beebe."

Larry has that certain look in his eye again. Frieda Mae seems to know all about it.

Back wasn't satisfied with going one girl on the census, he had to go two days with two girls. Maybe he is going to have a date yet.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Parity Vote Heralds Farm Price Rise; Allies' North Africa Strength Grows As Yanks Wipe Out Rommel's Advance; RAF Raids Strafe German U-Boat Nests

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Released by Western Newspaper Union.

On their way to continue the offensive against the Japs at Salamaua in New Guinea, Australian troops pass through a group of Americans who had been in action earlier. This photo was made after the successful close of the Japanese campaign against the Japs.

TUNISIA:

Rommel Pays Dearly

The 50-odd miles that Marshal Rommel had originally advanced against American forces in Tunisia had been the "Desert Fox" dearly. For not only had most of that gain been lost in retreat, but the Axis offensive had been converted into a first-class Axis setback, with heavy casualties.

Full well through the Kasserine pass Rommel's Afrika Korps tank forces had retreated to the southward under powerful Allied gun and aircraft attack. Seasoned observers termed Rommel's maneuver, a typical Axis hit-and-run action. The Axis had found the American forces overextended and trying to man untenable positions. The Axis had struck hard. When the American high command met this offensive with a more powerful counteroffensive, the Axis ran for cover.

Then Rommel's first major bid to cut Allied communications lines had been thwarted.

As the Allied fortunes in Central Tunisia thus turned brightly upward, reports disclosed that General Sir Bernard Montgomery's British eighth army had been on the move in North Africa and had struck with augmented power in southeastern Tunisia. Smashing with tanks into the German line, General Montgomery had seriously threatened Rommel's rear.

HITLER BOASTS:

Nazis Not Yet Beaten

Adolf Hitler's absence at key Nazi party gatherings had caused speculation as to his health and reasons for remaining under cover. But wherever he was, his radio-control message to the German people via a speech proclamation was as harsh and fanatical as if the Führer had delivered it personally.

Caution to the people of occupied Europe was Hitler's declaration that "we shall not scruple about foreign lives when such hard sacrifices are exacted from our own lives."

Germany's future and the future of Europe, he said, will be decided on the Western front. He boasted that enemies who believed they almost had Germany down would be "terribly disappointed."

"We matter how great the coalition of our enemies may be," his proclamation added, "it is smaller in power than the strength of the alliance of our people."

4,403 NEW SHIPS:

To Help Beat Axis

Funds for the construction of 4,403 ships for the Maritime commission were approved when the house appropriations committee reported an appropriation bill providing $4,338,538,435.

The current shipbuilding program is to thwart the Axis submarine peril and provide transoceanic facilities for men and supplies has been mapped through 1943, according to Admiral Emory Land, director of the Maritime commission. The schedule called for construction of 3,232 ships of which 584 were delivered before January 1, 1943. In addition, he said, it was proposed to extend the program to provide for 2,354 additional ships to be contracted for during 1943.

HIGHLIGHTS... in the week's news

WASHINGTON: More than 3,000,000 babies were born in the United States last year, the census bureau estimated. This was the largest number of births in any year in the nation's history. The previous record was in 1921 when 3,000,000 were born. The 1942 report compared with an estimated total births of 2,715,000 in 1941 and 2,600,000 in 1940. Officials estimated fewer 1943 births.

FARM PRICES:

Wickard vs. Senate

When Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard requested Congress for a "clean mandate" to proceed with his 1943 farm production program, he asked for sanction to attempt the difficult feat of increasing farm prices without raising prices to consumers. The "clean mandate" was appropriation by Congress of $100,000,000 for incentive payments.

But the senate farm bloc had ideas of its own about solving the farm income riddle. Legislation providing higher ceilings on prices of some farm commodities passed the senate by a 75-2 vote. Under the terms of the new act, the government no longer would deduct benefit payments from ceilings.

How much this measure if finally approved by all branches of the government would add to the food bills of consumers was a question neither the department of agriculture nor the OPA was prepared to answer immediately, because of technical factors involved.

OPA officials, however, expressed the view that increases in living costs would be considerable.

AIR OFFENSIVE:

Allies Harass Europe

Although Allied land operation offensives against Hitler-held Europe were still in the blueprint stage, the offensive by air continued to gather momentum.

Wilhelmshaven, the major Nazi naval base, and Lorient, the vast Axis submarine base on the French coast, were repeated targets. The RAF celebrated its 10th raid on Wilhelmshaven by bombing key objectives without the loss of a single plane. In one of the raids on Lorient Allied fliers dropped more than 1,500 tons of explosives.

In a summary of operations, an RAF spokesman revealed that 100,000 tons of bombs had been dropped on German objectives to date in the war and that 3,000 daylight sorties had been made by the bomber command in 1943 alone.

CAFE RATIONING:

Streamlines Bill-of-Fare

Diners-out in restaurants and hotels faced all manner of helpings on their plates and a streamlined bill-of-fare reducing the variety of foods offered, as enforcement of the food administration's rationing orders for commercial eating establishments was undertaken.

Aimed primarily at food waste, the orders governing restaurants, hotels and other institutions did, however, provide a larger proportionate allotment of canned and processed foods than individual householders were permitted to have. Because allotments were based on the number of persons served in December rather than on the amount of rationed foods actually served, small cafes and stands would get a proportionately larger share of canned and processed foods than places that serve for the most part complete meals.

Restaurant and hotel allowances were set at a minimum rate of 18 per cent larger than those for households.

NEW YORK: Unless certain manufacturers cease encouraging mailing of an excessive number of parcel post packages to the overseas navy personnel, the mailing privileges may be restricted, according to a navy statement. While army personnel abroad must obtain prior permission from commanding officers to receive parcel post packages, navy men do not.

With RUTH WYETH SPEARS

NO SEWING machine should be idle today. No matter if yours is not the newest model, keep it in good repair and include it in your decorating scheme. This sketch shows how one was fitted into a living room to look very smart and to do extra duty as a table.

Plywood or composition board may be used for the removable top, (see sketch). The top cover is of blue felt with a scalloped band stitched around it. This is quick and easy to do as it is not necessary to finish raw edges of felt. The full skirt is made of the best part of old sheets dyed a soft ecru tone. This is sewn to the seam allowance of the felt and all is tacked to the back of the removable top so that it may be removed easily. A pair of kitchen stools are painted cream color and topped with blue felt for lamp stands. Scalloped felt also trims the lamp shades and the cover of an old side chair to match the table.

NOTE—Directions for making the spool lamp illustrated together with 31 other conservation plans are in the new BOOK 9 which Mrs. Spears has just prepared for readers. Copies are available at 15 cents each. Send your request to:

Help your Grocer

Let's Get Behind Him and Make Rationing a Success—Start Now to use more of the plentiful NON-RATIONED FOODS

THE man who runs your grocery store has his headaches these days. For months, in the face of shortages and lack of experienced help, he's been trying to carry on... trying to give you the kind of service you've always expected of him.

Now he has a brand new problem—point rationing. He has to collect the stamps from you as well as the cash.

It's a burden for him—and for you. But he knows and you know that it's got to be done. It's the only fair way of making sure that everybody gets a fair share. That's our way of doing things.

So it's his job—and your job—everybody's job—to make point rationing work... as smoothly, as efficiently as possible. Traffic jams in food stores aren't going to help anybody.

Now there are a number of ways in which you can give this grocer of yours a real hand... in a good, neighborly American way. You can shop early in the day, early in the week. You can shop as infrequently as possible—once a week only, if you can manage. You can always make sure to have a shopping list, and to have your "point value" added up before you go to the store.

And you can help yourself as well as your grocer by using the plentiful, unrationed foods as much as you can, instead of the scarce, rationed foods. Foods such as cereals, fresh fruits and vegetables, home-canned meats, home-canned fruits and vegetables are not rationed and they deserve an important place in your wartime meals.

Because cereals are one of these abundant rationed foods, we here at the Kellogg factory in Battle Creek have been doing everything we possibly can to meet the unprecedented demand for our products. We're sending millions upon millions of packages of crisp Kellogg Cereals to the boys in our armed forces. We're packing Kellogg for troops in the front lines of fighting. Even our machine shop is making gun parts! And we're short of help, too. There are 425 stars on the big service flag hanging in the lobby of the Kellogg building.

Other ways to help your Grocer...

1. Shop early in the day.
2. Shop early in the week.
3. Shop only once or twice a week.
4. Prepare a shopping list.
5. Add up total "point" value before going to the store.

But in spite of these wartime difficulties, we've doubled our efforts to be sure that you can supply Kellogg Cereals to the millions of American families who are depending on cereals more than ever.

Always known for marvelous flavor, every Kellogg Cereal is made of WHOLE GRAIN NUTRITIVE VALUES through the addition of vitamins (vitamin B₁), niacin and iron. With milk alone or with milk and fruit, a bowl of crisp, delicious Kellogg Cereal gives you vitamins, minerals, protein, food-energy in one dish!

And remember this about cereals: In your daily meals, they're quick and easy to prepare. No cooking, no pots or skillets to clean up. Even the dishes are easier to wash.

Cereals are three—work—fast—other foods. Used in sandwiches, meat-loaves, croquettes, etc., they help you stretch your meat... and they make milk go farther, too.

Think of cereals as one of your best, most nutritious, non-rationed foods and think of Kellogg Cereals as the finest you can have.

FROM O.P.A. CONSUMER INSTRUCTION SHEET

"EAT MORE CEREALS"—There is an abundance of such food, as you know, that is unrationed. They are plentiful and delicious—and very economical. They are especially good when eaten with milk, fruit and sugar.
